Art Rejections:

1. The texts of 35 U.S.C. 102(e) and 103(a) cited in the previous office action are hereby incorporated by reference.

2. Claims 28 and 30-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Mastrianni U.S. pat. Appl. Pub. No. 2002/0116641.

Per claim 28, Mastrianni discloses a communications system comprising:

a) a user interface application for an email service (e.g., web browser, mail client), the user interface application residing on a computer (200) (see par. 18);

b) a communication manager (304) configured to:

track user activity; and regulate a level of communications that occurs for an active user based upon a classification of the active user as either an adult or a child, the communication manager residing on the computer (see par. 20), wherein:

the user interface application provides an identity of the active user to the communication manager such that a user interface is arranged according to settings for the active user such that a user having a child persona is restricted from configuring email accounts accessed by the communication manager for the active user having the child persona and a subset of operations performed by the communication manager unless authorized by a user having an adult persona (see par. 35-36).

Per claims 30-31, Mastrianni teaches enabling filtering emails per user, i.e., emails addressed to different accounts/mail boxes (see par. 28).

Per claims 32-34, Mastrianni teaches notifying the active adult user of new emails and requesting adult's approval of questionable emails addressed to a child (see par. 29, 32, 36).

3. Claims 29 and 35-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mastrianni.

Per claim 29, Mastrianni discloses a communication system as discussed in item 2 above. Mastrianni does not teach filtering other types of messages including instant messages.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to practice Mastrianni's with other known types of messages including instant messages because it would have provided protection to a child user from receiving harmful messages/contents from the Internet.

Per claims 35-49, Mastrianni teaches configuring by the adult user the communication system for blocking emails and/or Internet contents delivered to a child user (see par. 21).

Art Unit: 2154

Mastrianni does not explicitly teach restricting the child user from configuring the message filtering communication system.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to recognize such restriction of the system configuration to authorized adult user only because allowing system access by any users including child user would have defeated purpose of Mastrianni's message filtering.

Response to Amendment:

4. Applicant's arguments filed on August 20, 2007 are deemed moot in view of new ground of rejection set forth above.

Conclusion:

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new grounds of rejection. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See M.P.E.P. § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a).

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE TO THIS FINAL ACTION IS SET TO EXPIRE THREE MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS ACTION. IN THE EVENT A FIRST RESPONSE IS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE MAILING DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION AND THE ADVISORY ACTION IS NOT MAILED UNTIL AFTER THE END OF THE THREE-MONTH SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD, THEN THE SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD WILL EXPIRE ON THE DATE THE ADVISORY ACTION IS MAILED, AND ANY EXTENSION FEE PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a) WILL BE CALCULATED FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THE ADVISORY ACTION. IN NO EVENT WILL THE STATUTORY

PERIOD FOR RESPONSE EXPIRE LATER THAN SIX MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION.
